NARRATIVE:

Padilla, a documented gang member, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include multiple cases of possession of dangerous weapons, exhibiting an imitation firearm, battery, petty theft, vandalism, false identification to a peace officer, multiple cases of possessing narcotic controlled substances, resisting arrest, possessing contraband in jail and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being 2 years for possessing narcotic controlled substances. Padilla was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on May 16th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in May 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Padilla qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possessing narcotic controlled substances is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
